Sharing

Informative meetings require comfort for everyone. Both the T-leg and height adjustable telescopic leg provide constant ergonomics and comfort for users, wherever they are seated, all around the table.

Collaborating

Project teams need an environment that removes both physical and virtual barriers, allowing them to freely engage with analog and digital tools. The unique Tenaro triangle shape supports active collaboration, by giving participants equal access to the others and to the information displayed.

Training

Training is key for companies who want their employees to achieve the best results. Tenaro mobile tables facilitate fluid transitions between learning modes, making it easy to reconfigure face to face settings into more formal configurations.
